

In this project, the Virginia Modeling Analysis and Simulation Center will use data analytic and visualization tools on data related to the opioid epidemic in Hampton Roads, including both 2D and 3D visualizations, to better understand and respond to the opioid crisis.